If this city continues to improve as it has in the past year it will be well for the citizens to carefully preserve all the old photographs or they will one day forget how the Capital City looked in December, 1908.—Frankfort State Journal.

This is delightful news to all. Frankfort has the historical and sentimental, all right, and now her people should get together and embellish the already picturesque and the Capitol City will soon be what it should be, a fitting Executive City for the new Kentucky.

"LACKAWANNA" is the highest-priced railroad stock in the world. The par value of its shares is $100, and the price ranges between $500 and $1,000—a hundred or a thousand times a loss or gain of the road is owned by the Lackawanna and Astors and is valued with the same high standard as its dividends are paid. Its stock is only $26,200,000.

With some color of authority it is really back of all the troubles in Venezuela. The combination of wealthy people, who would ruin President Roosevelt to further their own ends, is one reason why President Roosevelt does not meddle with Casar. He may be a very bad man, but he is better than the Asphalt Road. He is good enough to contract to build the infernal regions if he can get the bidders to do the

The Ohio river will have a personal friend in the White House after March 4th, a friend who believes in a 9-foot stage all the year around, and one who is willing to go in debt to bring about the early consummation of rivermen's hopes. It will be a strange thing if the Ohio river improvements do not have smooth sailing with the President behind them.—Gallopis Tribune.

The recent election has made it probable that I shall become more or less responsible for the policy of the next Presidential Administration, and I improve this opportunity to say that nothing would give me greater pride, because nothing would give me more claim to the gratitude of my fellow-citizens if I could so direct that policy in respect to the Southern States as to convince its intelligent citizens of the desire of the Administration to aid them in working out satisfactorily the serious problems before them and of bringing them and their Northern fellow-citizens closer and closer in sympathy and point of view.

During the last decade, in common with all lovers of our country, I have watched with delight and thanksgiving the bond of union between the two sections grow firmer. I pray that it may be given to me to strengthen this movement, to obliterate all sectional lines and leave nothing of differences between the North and the South save a friendly emulation for the benefit of our common country.—W. H. Taft.

Down at Frankfort last week an applicant was being examined by a number of learned Judges for admission to the Bar. When asked the question, "What would you charge a client for certain professional services?" the applicant replied, "Just what the service was worth." Naturally he was expected to say "to get all you could," and such an unprofessional reply that he made came near barring him from the profession.

HOLIDAY TRADE

In Maysville Was of Record Breaking Proportions—Merchants Well Pleased With Results

Any person who noticed the thousands of out-of-town people in Maysville last week wouldn't wonder that the 1908 holiday business of Maysville merchants was of the record breaking order and that our storekeepers, with hardly an exception, were amazed and delighted with Christmas results.

Christmas Eve there must have been fully 2,000 vehicles on the streets of Maysville and nearly every street was lined with solid rows of hatched buggies and other conveyances which brought the vast crowd from the country and neighboring towns to do their holiday buying in our bustling city.

More than a thousand people came in Thursday over the C. and O. and the L. and N. and the rush at the stores Christmas Eve was of the crushing variety.

To gather a general expression of our merchants on holiday trade results, a representative of THE PUBLIC LEDGER made the rounds Saturday and inquired of each firm: "How was your Christmas trade?"

Following were the replies: D. Hechinger & Co., clothing, etc.: "Our trade shows an increase of over 25% over last year and our business is most gratifying."

Merz Bros., drygoods, etc.: "The Bee Hive's Christmas business was very satisfactory and totals a handsome increase over past records. We sold 100 copies of John Fox's new book, 'The Trail of the Lonesome Pine,' exhausting our purchase. We believe in advertising."

Hunt's, drygoods, etc.: "Results very pleasing, especially our sales of high quality goods. We noted trade from many points back in Ohio and Kentucky. Our business shows substantial increase."

S. Straus, New York Store, drygoods, etc.: "Our holiday trade Saturday before Christmas and Christmas Eve exceeded any of our previous sales here. I figure out that my holiday trade will show an increase of 38% over last year. Am I satisfied?"

J. Wealey Lee, clothing, etc.: "Our trade was O. K. and very pleasing, considering conditions. We have faith in Maysville and her growing future."

George H. Frank, clothing, etc.: "My holiday business was simply immense and am greatly pleased at the manner the public responded to my bargains."

R. L. Hoeflich, drygoods, etc.: "Good, and no room for any kick. One of the best trades I ever had."

Mejor W. H. Means, Manager Dan Cohen's Shoe Store: "Our shoe trade was satisfactory, taking into consideration that we have had unseasonable weather to sell footwear. People have to have shoes and we sell lots of 'em even in good weather."

Berkley's Shoe Store: "Our Christmas trade was splendid," said Mr. Harry Berkley, "and we are pleased to note that the buyers are securing a higher quality of footwear. No complaint."

W. B. Pecora's Shoe Store: "My footwear trade was excellent and fully up to past records."

J. James Wood & Son, druggs: "Fine, and am pleased to say that our trade was the best in years," said Mr. Jamie B. Wood.

J. C. Pecora, druggs: "Was taxed to handle the trade, while postal station business broke all previous records."

Thomas J. Chenoweth, druggs: "Our Christmas business was up to the usual proportions; sales were quite satisfactory."

Sallie Wood's druggstore: "Biggest trade for years and sales show gratifying increase."

Mike Brown, harness and farmers' supplies: "The Square Deal Man" said: "We had the biggest business in past three years and prosperity is right here in old Maysville. The Princess Rink, too, drew the crowds and everybody happy."

M. F. Williams, Masonic Temple druggstore: "My holiday trade was the largest I ever enjoyed and we had all we could do."

R. B. Lovel, groceries: "I had a very satisfactory trade and couldn't supply the demand for oysters. Sold three times the oysters I sold last Christmas."

J. C. Cablish & Bro., groceries: "We enjoyed a very large trade, especially in fruits, and it taxed us to deliver purchases."

G. W. Galsel, groceries: "Our holiday business was fully up to expectations and past records and have no complaint to register."

P. J. Murphy, jewelry and silverware: "Christmas business very satisfactory."

Dan Parrine, jewelry and silverware: "Business was good. Better than last year."

Andrew Clooney, jewelry and silverware: "The best I ever had and was surprised at the rush."

G. A. McCarthy, jewelry and silverware.

"LIVES OF GREAT MEN ALL REMINISCE"

The story of how Marshall Field amassed his great fortune may be told in a few words. He had something to sell and advertised it.
